

Learn about water's role during the Comstock

Former backcountry ranger Cheryl Surface will lead a bus tour of the backcountry of Spooner with the topic being Water History of the Comstock.

Surface will tell stories about Red House, Hobart Reservoir, Marlette Lake, the Flume trail and the Marlette Water System.

Bring lunch, water, a light jacket and camera. Comfortable shoes are best because there will be limited walking.

The event is Aug. 11 from 9am-4pm. Adults only and space is limited to 12 people. Call (775) 749.5980 for reservations.
