

LTN is giving away a copy of 'Almost Somewhere'

Lake Tahoe News has a copy of Suzanne Roberts' latest book "Almost Somewhere" to give away.

Roberts, who teaches at Lake Tahoe Community College and Sierra Nevada College, writes about her experience hiking the John Muir Trail.

All you have to do is go onto LTN's Facebook page now and figure what the picture is of and post your comment there. It will be obvious once you get there.

Publisher's note: We have two winners. Frances Lord posted the answer on LTN's FB page and Tim Hauserman posted on Suzanne Roberts'. Congratulations!
