

Then and now: Businesses and billboards

2012

1965

If I remember correctly, even before it was Meal On A Bun, it was a drive-through dairy milk stand.

Today the building houses Teaz-n-Pleaz.

Notice the Harrah's billboard across the street advertising Liberace. Billboards were banned when the city of South Lake Tahoe formed in 1965.

– Bill Kingman