

Free music at Valhalla

Ike Marr and Martin Shears have been making music together for 18 years. From their first musical meeting in Phoenix, their chemistry was undeniable.

Sharing a passion for great songwriting, harmony vocals, humor, and bourbon, they forged a friendship and musical partnership that has wowed audiences all over the world.

The will be playing for free on the lawn at Valhalla on the South Shore on Sept. 2 from noon-2pm.