

S. Tahoe doggie daycare helping victims of Sandy

Tahoe Best Friends, a cage free doggie daycare and home-style boarding center in South Lake Tahoe, is supporting the efforts of two relief organizations in wake of devastation from superstorm Sandy.

On Nov. 10-11, Tahoe Best Friends will offer free doggie daycare between 7am and 7pm. In exchange for free doggie daycare, Tahoe Best Friends is accepting donations that will all go directly to the Red Cross Relief of Hurricane Sandy and the ASPCA Hurricane Sandy Relief funds.

If you bring your best friend in for some fun, you will get a charitable tax receipt.

This offer for a free doggie daycare is for anyone with a dog-friendly dog that is fully vaccinated.

Make reservations online or call (530) 542.2336.