

Sex offender arrested in Truckee

Registered sex offender Gustavo Ramirez, 20, of Truckee was arrested on charges related to not telling police officers where he was actually living.

Officers said when Ramirez first registered he gave a false address. The reality, officers said, is Ramirez was living closer to a day care facility than he was legally allowed.

He was booked into jail Nov. 21 on charges of failing to register and violating his probation.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report