

Stateline casinos follow state trend of minimal revenue gains

Nevada casinos eked out small gains in October. Revenue was up 1.8 percent to $978.8 million compared to 2011, the Gaming Control Board reported today.

Stateline casinos were up 0.7 percent, with revenues of $15.8 million.

Washoe County dropped 7 percent, Carson City was down 5.5 percent.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report