

Cardiologist to talk about living at higher elevations

Barton Health's Wellness Lecture Series, now in its third year, resumes Feb. 6.

There will be 20 lectures in 2013 addressing a variety of topics.

The first lecture of 2013 will be given by cardiologist David Young from Barton Cardiology on Feb. 6 from 6 to 7pm at Lake Tahoe Community College in the Aspen Room.

Young will discuss cardiovascular adaptations of high altitude living.

The lectures are free.
