

USFS meeting centers on water rights at ski resorts

The U.S. Forest Service has scheduled three public meetings next week, including one in South Lake Tahoe, to discuss ski resorts and water.

The water rights center on ski resorts and snowmaking.

This article provides some background on the topic.

The Forest Service open houses are April 16 in Lakewood, Colo., April 17 in Salt Lake City, and April 18 from 4-6:30pm at the Forest Service at 35 College Drive, South Lake Tahoe.