

Relay for Life returning to South Shore

The annual Relay for Life on the South Shore is Aug. 10 from 11am-11pm.

The event is at Kahle Community Park in Stateline.

Money raised goes to the American Cancer Society. The ACS gives out gas cards locally and supplies wigs to nearby cancer centers.

The ACS is the largest private donor to cancer research.

To donate or find out more info, go online.