

Learn to landscape in sustainable manner

There will be a sustainable landscaping workshop on July 16 from 6-8pm at the South Tahoe Public Utility District office.

This free workshop will include information on: water saving technology, water-wise landscaping techniques, turf removal techniques and relandscaping ideas, yard fertility practices for healthier turf and cleaner water, and turf irrigation scheduling and maintenance.

The office is at 1275 Meadow Crest Drive, South Lake Tahoe.