

S. Tahoe launching fall Citizens Academy

South Lake Tahoe is accepting applications for the fall 2013 Citizens Academy.

The Citizens Academy will be on Wednesday evenings from 5:30-8 from Sept. 25–Oct. 30.

The application deadline is Sept. at 5pm.

The South Lake Tahoe Citizens Academy is a free, six-session interactive course designed to provide residents with an in-depth look into municipal government, as well as, information about the services and programs of South Lake Tahoe.

More information is available online.