

Geotourism Expo to show off Tahoe region

The annual Tahoe Geotourism Expo is designed to showcase the treasures of Tahoe.

Activities throughout the region include native ceremonies, drumming dancing to physical challenges, water yoga, nature and wildlife tours, historical enactments, hand-crafted music, interactive adventures, native twinning and beading, sand castles crawls and fitness classes.

The two-day event is Sept. 7-8.

For more details, go online.