

Snippets about Lake Tahoe

- Johnny Poland, convicted felon and former South Lake Tahoe police officer, will be able to keep his taxpayer-funded retirement – just not at the full rate.

- Floppy's on Kingsbury Grade has new owners – Zion Finck and Courtney Benvenuto. The grand reopening is Oct. 3 from 4:30-6:30pm.
- Truckee photographers and gallery owners Elizabeth and Olof Carmel have released their 2014 landscape photography calendars and Elizabeth Carmel photographic DVD.
- Tahoe National Forest has lifted its fire restrictions.
- There will be a meeting about incorporating Olympic Valley on Oct. 6 at 3pm at PlumpJack in the Squaw Valley Village.