

1 person dies in series of I-80 spin outs

By Nick Janes, KOVR-KMAX

SODA SPRINGS – A woman was killed by a car spinning out of control in Interstate 80 in the Sierra on Thursday.

Traffic on I-80 was brought to a standstill after the accident killed the woman near Soda Springs.

It started when a Lexus spun out and someone stopped to help.

The man and woman got out of their car as it was being towed out, and then a second Lexus spun out.

Read the whole story