

Swath of North Shore without power

A large number of Liberty Utilities' customers on the North Shore are without power Saturday night.

No cause has been located as of 10:10pm. Because of that, there is no estimated time when power will be restored.

The outage is affecting customers serviced by the Brockway substation. The number of customers without power has not been disclosed by Liberty.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report