

Letter: Libraries make people smarter

To the community,

When I visit small towns with active libraries in a white suit as Mark Twain, they hail me as "Mr. Twain," or "Samuel Clemens." When I visit small towns without active libraries they customarily ask if I'm there to fry them up some chicken.

Please vote yes on Measure L.

McAvoy Layne, Incline Village