

South Tahoe to celebrate Earth Day

South Lake Tahoe is celebrating Earth Day on April 26 at Bijou Community Park from 10am to 4pm.

There will be live music and opportunities to learn about ways to counteract global climate change through recycling and composting, alternative energy, water conservation, sustainability, and reducing our ecological footprint.

The event is free.