

Squaw hosting festival showcasing local businesses

The 2nd annual Made in Tahoe Festival returns to Squaw Valley May 24-25.

It showcases local businesses, artisans, product designers, nonprofits and performers all hailing from the Tahoe region. Food will also be available.

New this year will be live performances by local artists including Tahoe Flow Arts, a studio that specializes in aerial arts, dance and yoga.

Festivities will be from 11am-7pm.
