

LTCC students to show off artwork

Lake Tahoe Community College's Art Department's annual Student Art Exhibition, showcasing up-and-coming South Lake Tahoe artists who have enrolled in art classes during the last academic year, is May 18-June 14.

The opening reception is May 18 from 2-5pm with music, refreshments, and the awards ceremony at 3:30pm in the main building on campus.

Megan Berner is the juror for the exhibition. Berner is a UNR Art Department photography faculty member, as well as a photography, video, and installation artist.

The exhibition is free and open to the public.
