

Citizens may help select Douglas County manager

Douglas County is looking for community members to help select the next county manager.

The 71 applicants are being whittled down, with a slate expected to be presented to county commissioners July 17.

Following the selection of top candidates, an panel, including advisory members from the public, will be part of interview process.

The chosen candidates will be visiting Douglas County on Aug. 4-5.

Douglas County is looking for people interested in participating in the advisory interview panel. If interested, submit your name and contact information to Douglas County Human Resources at 775.782.9860 or at wlang@co.douglas.nv.us no later than July 16.