

Clear Creek Fire 75% contained

The Clear Creek Fire burning in the Carson Valley is 75 percent contained.

The acreage burned has been reduced to 187.

The fire started the evening of July 16 from lightning. While homes were threatened in the Jacks Valley area, that is no longer the case.

Firefighters expect full containment by Saturday evening.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report