

Snippets about Lake Tahoe

- John McLaughlin, CFO of Edgewood Companies, and Ken Riley, senior vice president of Kiewit Infrastructure Group, have joined the Tahoe Prosperity Center board.

- Dolph Lundgren will star “The Lake”, a movie being filmed this fall in the Tahoe-Reno area. It’s about freshwater sharks in Lake Tahoe.

- Mike Panici of Incline Village released his album “Darlin” this week on the Tate Music Group label. It is available through iTunes, Amazon, or TateMusicGroup.com.

- Forever Dreams for Veterans scheduled for Sept. 5 at MontBleu in Stateline has been canceled.

- Drone Promotions, a Lake Tahoe company, shared this video with LTN: