

Tahoe to take on ALS ice bucket challenge

Lake Tahoe residents are gathering on the South Shore on Aug. 31 for what is being called one of the largest non-water wasting bucket challenges for ALS.

Bring a 5 gallon bucket to Lakeview Commons. Lake water will be used for the challenge; with people standing in the lake.

A $10 (or more) donation is suggested that will go toward ALS.

The event is at 3pm.