

Investigators ID remains found on West Slope

The remain found in field off Missouri Flat Road and Highway 50 in Placerville have been identified as Penny Juergenson, 52.

The initial cause of death is undetermined pending toxicology results. However, the preliminary investigation does not indicate any foul play, according to El Dorado County sheriff's deputies.

The remains were found Aug. 17 by hikers.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report