

Vail Resorts buys Park City Mountain Resort

By Christopher Smart, Salt Lake Tribune

Vail Resorts has purchased Park City Mountain Resort for $182.5 million in cash, creating the country's largest ski resort covering more than 7,000 acres.

The Colorado resort announced the acquisition Thursday morning, adding that the sale resolves all litigation with Powdr Corp., Park City Mountain Resort's parent company.

Read the whole story