

'Addicted To Life' film coming to Squaw

The U.S. film premiere of "Addicted To Life" is Dec. 26 on the North Shore.

The movie will take people on a trip around the world to exotic locations while watching the best of the best wing suit base jumpers, skiers, surfers, BMX athletes, skateboarders, kayakers, and kite boarders on a quest to fulfill their "Addiction To Life."

Chamonix based filmmaker Thierry Donard will participate in a Q&A after the show.

Tickets are $15 online. Food and beverages will be available for purchase.

The Squaw Valley Institute is putting on the Dec. 26 film at 5:30pm and 8pm at the Olympic Village Lodge.
