

Former coffee magnate's Tahoe home on market

By Candace Taylor, Wall Street Journal

A home on Lake Tahoe with more than 600 feet of sandy beach is seeking $34.5 million.

The property was once owned by the family that founded Hills Bros. Coffee.

In 1998, real-estate investors Carole and Robert McNeil purchased 5 acres for $10 million, and have since added to the property. The McNeils tore down the original house and built a bigger home around 2001.

Read the whole story