

Incline Village home invasion suspects sought

Angel Infante-Mendoza

The is the vehicle used by the suspects. Photos/Provided

Two people suspected in a New Year's Day home invasion in Incline Village are wanted by Washoe County sheriff's deputies.

The third suspect, Angel Infante-Mendoza, was arrested on charges of burglary, home invasion, child abuse and neglect, domestic battery, and battery with a deadly weapon.

Deputies said three people broke in an apartment on the 700 block of Southwood Boulevard midmorning Jan. 1. The suspects fled the scene in a grey midsize SUV.

Anyone with information is asked to call 775.328.3320 or Secret Witness at 775.322.4900.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report