

Nevada No. 2 in U.S. for foreclosure activity in April

By Jennifer Robison, Las Vegas Review-Journal

Nevada continued to chip away at its home foreclosures in April.

Nevada has been a leader in foreclosures for years. Photo/Brendel

A Wednesday report from California research firm RealtyTrac found that foreclosure activity across the state was up 39 percent year over year in the month, extending to one in every 555 homes. That was good enough for No. 2 in the nation for default-related activity.

Florida ranked No. 1, with one in every 425 homes in some stage of foreclosure. Maryland, New Jersey and Tennessee rounded out the top five.

Read the whole story