

Snippets about Lake Tahoe

- The official ground breaking ceremony for Lake Tahoe Wildlife Care's new home will be July 16 at 3pm at 1551 Al Tahoe Blvd., South Lake Tahoe.
- "Tahoe: A Visual History" will feature 175 painters, photographers, architects, weavers and sculptors at the Nevada Museum of Art in Reno from Aug. 15-Jan. 10. For more info, call 775.329.3333.
- Brad Gustafson hit a hole in one on the second hole at Bijou Golf Course in South Lake Tahoe.
- Vacation rentals will be on the July 21 South Lake Tahoe City Council agenda.
- Tahoe Environmental Research Center, which operates four research buoys with NASA-JPL, recently replaced two of them. These buoys collect data that help check the accuracy of satellite information, provide instantaneous weather data, and even measure the dust and nutrients that fall out of the air and onto the lake.