Carson City deputy killed in shooting

By Reno Gazette-Journal

A Carson City Sheriff's deputy was killed during a confrontation with a suspect early Saturday morning, the Carson City Sheriff's Department announced in a news release.

At 2:18am, deputies responded to a report of a domestic battery involving physical injury at the 4100 block of Montez Drive. A woman was found at the scene with injuries, the release said.

Read the whole story