

Deceased couple in Truckee hotel identified

The two people found dead in a Truckee hotel room have been identified as a couple from Hollister.

Police do not believe foul play was involved, but the cause of death has not been determined. Authorities are waiting for toxicology reports, which could take 10 weeks.

The bodies of Linda Marsh, 63, and Anthony Marsh, 46, were discovered Sept. 16 at Richard's Motel on Donner Pass Road near Donner Lake.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report