

Halloween stories to be told at ZC Library

Tilly the Witch (aka Carol Nageotte) will be telling spooky stories at the Douglas County Public Library in Zephyr Cove on Oct. 28 at 5:30pm.

Dress in your Halloween costume for this special storytime. Children will receive a Halloween treat to take home.

Children ages 4 and up will listen to Halloween stories from the library's collection including a flashlight story. Tilly the Witch will end the program with her favorite poem, "Spider on the Floor."

The library is located at 233 Warrior Way.
