

Barton Foundation has money to give away

The Barton Foundation $14,500 to give away for community projects focused on building capacity through training, informational products, or events that increase mental health awareness, reduce stigma, and connect patients and their families to programs and services.

Priority will be given to “one time” investments, such as special projects or events. Grants will not be awarded for overhead or on-going services.

Grant proposals will be accepted until Nov. 30, with recipients notified no later than Jan. 30.

This funding is available for nonprofit organizations and social service agencies. Additional grant criteria and the application are available online or contact Kindle Craig at 530.543.5612.
