

Snow day for some Tahoe schools

All Incline Village school are talking Monday as a snow day.

Zephyr Cove and Whittell schools in Douglas County are on a one-hour delay and only the main bus stops are being serviced.

The rest of the week in the Tahoe basin is expected to be cold. The next system is slated for Friday, bringing rain and then snow into the weekend.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report