

LTUSD improvements subject of TV broadcast

Larry King's "In View" segment about Lake Tahoe Unified School District has been released.

The school board last year agreed to spend $27,900 on the venture.

Besides being aired on national television, the district will be left with professional footage that it may use in other venues as a marketing component.