

Key Calif. campsite reservations open March 1

By Tom Stienstra, San Francisco Chronicle

If you snooze Tuesday morning, you will lose.

A series of target moments arrive at 7, 8 and 9am on March 1 for campsite reservations at state parks across California – including Point Reyes National Seashore in Marin, trail camps in the Santa Cruz Mountains and national forests in the Sierra Nevada – with other key dates imminent for Yosemite National Park.

At many sites across California, Labor Day Weekend is in play starting Tuesday, as well as all dates throughout summer.

Read the whole story