

Genoa putting on Easter egg hunt, brunch

The inaugural Cotton Tails Easter celebration at Mormon Station State Historic Park in Genoa will include a pancake brunch served picnic style, followed by an Easter egg hunt for children of all ages, with baskets being awarded to raffle winners in each age group.

There will be a photo booth and face-painting artist. The Easter Bunny is scheduled to make an appearance. There will also be farm fresh eggs for sale.

The event is March 26 from 10am-2pm. Tickets are $12 for adults and $8 for children for the pancake brunch. The Easter egg hunt is $6 per participant.
