

Stateline road rage incident leads to 1 arrest

A road rage incident Monday night sent a Stateline man to jail.

Jared Kaiser

Both drivers involved called May 30 just before 11pm to complain about the aggressive and possibly intoxicated driving of the other. The drivers were coming down Kingsbury Grade when one allegedly pointed a gun at the other.

Douglas County deputies located both vehicles. The investigation uncovered a weapon belonging to Jared Kaiser, 31, of Stateline.

Kaiser was arrested on charges of assault with a deadly weapon, driving under the influence, possession of a firearm while intoxicated, and reckless driving.

Deputies said Kaiser claimed he was a former police in Southern California, and possesses a valid permit for the weapon. Both weapon and permit were confiscated.
