

Carson Tahoe Health revising master plan

Carson Tahoe Health is in the process of revamping its master plan that will be the vision for the next decade.

The Carson City-based healthcare group will delve into what types of services might be needed in the future and facilities to make that happen.

Looking at what is working today and how to be more efficient will also be studied.

Carson Tahoe has offices in Dayton, Minden and at Lake Tahoe as well as in the capital city.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report