

Paranormal investigation and campout in Genoa

Find out if Mormon Station in Genoa is haunted at the paranormal campout.

Visitors will camp overnight on the grounds of Mormon Station while participating in a paranormal investigating of Genoa's past citizens who might still be visiting the Old Mormon Station today. This experience includes a tour of the park, a light Dutch oven dinner, and a haunting paranormal investigation under the light of a full moon.

Participants will have the chance to experience the park and its history through the eyes of a practiced paranormal investigator.

Space is limited for the July 16-17 event. Call 775.782.2590 to register. The night starts at 7pm, with the event ending at 8am.

This program is intended for ages 15 and up. Minors must be accompanied by an adult.