

Actors needed for LTCC's 'A Christmas Carol'

Auditions for Charles Dickens' classic play "A Christmas Carol" will be at Lake Tahoe Community College's Duke Theatre on Sept. 20 at 7pm.

Performances will place Nov. 12-22.

Actors of all ages and ethnic backgrounds are needed, from age 10 to 65. All actors will play multiple characters, except for the actor playing Ebenezer Scrooge. There are several roles available for boys and girls, including the role of Tiny Tim.

Scripts will be available on reserve at LTCC's Roberta Mason Library. Audition sides will also be available in the Duke Theatre lobby, and listed on the Theatre Arts Department's Facebook page one week prior to auditions.

In addition to acting roles, LTCC is also seeking light and soundboard operators, a stage manager, backstage crew, and construction workers.
