

Scuba diver who died at Tahoe was from Sac

The scuba diver who died at Lake Tahoe over Labor Day weekend has been identified as Michael Stephen Majewski.

The 63-year-old Sacramento man was diving with friends on Sept. 5 near Glenbrook when for unknown reasons he made an emergency ascent. He was unconscious when he surfaced.

The investigation is continuing by Douglas County sheriff's investigators. The cause of death is pending autopsy and toxicology results.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report