

SLT woman's stolen credit card used in Carson Valley

Douglas County deputies are searching for this woman.

Douglas County sheriff's investigators are looking for a woman who used a credit card in Gardnerville that had been stolen in South Lake Tahoe.

The victim lost her credit card Sept. 13 in the parking lot of a 7-Eleven in South Lake Tahoe. The bank could not locate her account information and was unable to close the account, according to deputies. The next morning the victim discovered that there was a $481.12 purchase on her account made at the Wal-Mart on Grant Avenue in Gardnerville..

The female suspect is described as Caucasian, in her 20s, wearing a hooded top and black baseball cap. She was accompanied by a male in his 20s wearing dark clothing.

A reward is being offered to anyone with information leading to the arrest and/or conviction of the suspect(s). Anyone with information is urged to call DCSO dispatch at 775.782.5126 or Douglas County Secret Witness at 775.782.7463.
