

Power out for small segment of North Shore

Update: Power has been restored.

More than 100 Liberty Utilities customers on the North Shore are without power.

A downed power line caused the outage. It is across Highway 89 near Cabin Creek Road.

Crews do not have an estimated time when the lights will come back on.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report