

NLTRA executive director calling it quits

Sandy Evans
Hall

North Lake Tahoe Resort Association is in need of a new leader.

Executive Director Sandy Evans Hall tendered her resignation, though it is not effective until July 1.

“My time here has been invaluable,” Hall said in a statement. “In addition to career accomplishments, I have thoroughly enjoyed our local landscape by paddling the entire shoreline of Lake Tahoe, hiking all of the Tahoe Rim Trail and 180 miles of the Pacific Crest Trail.”

She is returning to Colorado where she has family. Hall came to Tahoe in 2010.