

Letter: Heavenly helps at Bread & Broth

To the community,

Heavenly Mountain Resort skier services crew members spend their time making sure Heavenly guests and skiers enjoy a wonderful experience on the mountain. On Feb. 27, skier services Adopt A Day sponsor crew members Ingrid Heinig, Kelsey Carapia, Jack Pippin, Megan Madrid and Amy Rice provided the same dedication to ensure that Bread & Broth's Monday meal guests had a wonderful dining experience.

"Heavenly and the Vail family cherish the opportunity to give back to the community," said Rice.

She and her fellow crew members were a real treat for the B&B volunteers.

These five skier services volunteers were fun and very helpful with the meal's setup, serving and cleanup. B&B volunteers always know they are going to get a good sponsor crew when one of the Tahoe Vail Resorts hosts a dinner.

Thanks to the funds provided by the Vail Epic Promise Grant program, Heavenly and Kirkwood mountain resorts alternate months hosting AAD sponsorships.

It is a real testament to the Tahoe Vail Resorts' commitment to community involvement for them to sponsor 12 Adopt A Days every year and send their wonderful employees to help at the dinner.

Carol Gerard, Bread & Broth