

Wild & Scenic Film Fest returns to South Shore

The 12th annual Wild & Scenic Film Festival South Lake Tahoe combines award-winning environmental and adventure films with the energy of local activism.

Featured films will include outdoor adventures, environmental battles and inspirational stories of people making a difference. The film festival will take place March 24 at the MontBleu showroom in Stateline.

Advance tickets are $12 for Sierra Nevada Alliance members, $15 for non-members and $10 for students. Tickets can be purchased online and at Patagonia South Lake Tahoe. Tickets will be available at at the door for $20. Doors open at 6pm, films start at 7pm.