

1 fatality reported in West Slope house fire

One person has died in a Pollock Pines house fire.

Firefighters found the body while working to extinguish the flames early Friday morning.

The fire on North Street was reported at approximately 5:30am April 28.

No further details have been released.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report